

Dr. Conrad Webster's Recommended Readings:

- ❖ If you are looking for an understanding of how racist ideas become policies and practices. I recommend you read: Kendi, I. (2019). How to be an antiracist. New York: One World.
- ❖ If you want to coach educators up about race to create equitable schools, I recommend reading: Lindsey, D., Martinez, Richard S., & Myatt, Keith. (2020). Culturally proficient coaching: Supporting educators to create equitable schools (Second ed.). Thousand Oaks, California: Corwin.
- ❖ To support Black males in K-12 education and provide racial justice I recommend you read:
Nasir, N., Givens, Jarvis R., Chatmon, Christopher P., Howard, Tyrone C., & Noguera, Pedro. (2019). "We dare say love": Supporting achievement in the educational life of Black boys (Multicultural education series (New York, N.Y.)). New York, NY: Teachers College Press.

For more information on Dr. Conrad Webster visit
<http://drconradwebster.com/>